Conveniently Scheduled
The entire program is conducted in a local school, one night a week. (No weekend classes!) Our professors are local and provide support for our students to help prepare them to take their exit exams to complete their degree. Make-up options are available, on a case-by-case basis, in case of scheduling conflicts. Transfer credits are also considered and many classes are available online.

Less Cost, Not Less Quality
Save up to $200 per course (17%) with financial aid and pay-as-you-go plans. You can choose to defer student loan payments until you complete the program. Teacher Loan Forgiveness (up to $5,000) is also available for teachers who teach for five years in low-income schools and meet other requirements.
